

A Case Of Sebaceous Cyst and its surgical management

A 42 year old male patient reported to the department of oral and maxillo facial Surgery, with pain less swelling in relation to left cheek region, which gradually reached current size.

Surgical excision was done, followed by fibre optic laser was used during excision so there will be no recurrence.

Frontal view

Birds view

LOCAL ANESTHESIA

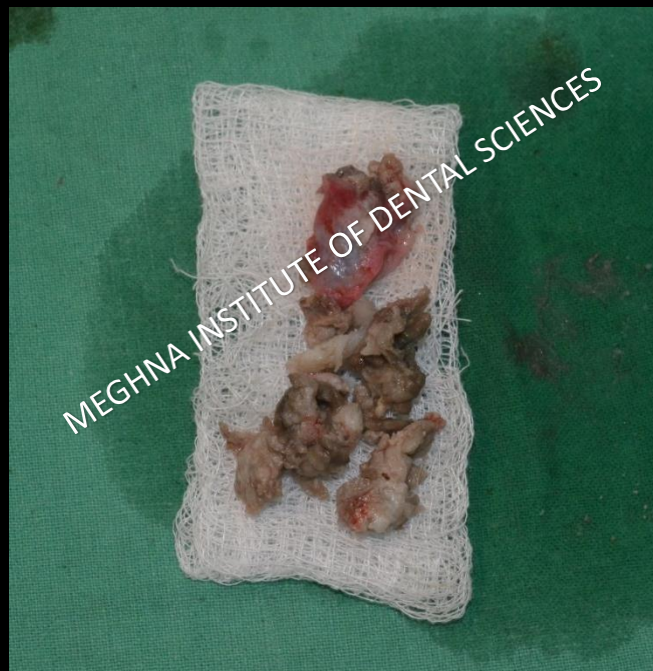

INCISION WAS GIVEN

LESION WAS EXCISED

FIBRE OPTIC LASER

EXCISED LESION

CLOSURE